Amanda says the cutest things!!

Lately Amanda has been picking up these really cute statements. She says "No Way" for the word "no". She also says "right" for yes and also "alright" for good or yes. Her laugh is truly joyous, loud and deep within her belly and so hilarious it is contagious and you can't help but crack up with her. It just melts my heart and gives me a giggle. What a precious little girl she is. I love you Amanda.
