Maryssa is still doing the potty today!!

Maryssa hasn't worn a diaper or a pull up all day today. She wore a bathing suit this morning and played on the water slide and then has been naked all day since this morning. This is way easier to potty train her.

There have been no pee pee or poo poo accidents at all today or yesterday!! Woo hoo!

So we are moving along on this potty training thing. Would it be wishful thinking that by August 11th when we got to Disneyland for their birthday that Maryssa will use the toilets at Disneyland bathrooms?
