Categories: Mom's Corner

Our Sweet Sally has died

Yesterday, June 18th, at 4:00pm, our dear neighbor, Sally Simmons, died. She was loved by us as though she was the grandmother to our children. What a huge loss. We miss her and it just aches so much.

Her memorial service will be on Monday, June 23rd at 3:00pm at a chapel located near St. Jude in Fullerton, CA Follow the memorial service will be a reception at Sid & Sally's house. Sid is deeply sad and grieving quite extensively. My heart just aches for him. He told me she was the love of his life and they were married for 62 years. Sally was 84 and Sid is 83.

I have known this dynamo couple for 10 years, as long as I have been married to Cliff. They have lived in their house since 1969. Cliff has lived next to them for 20 years. God Bless you Dear, Sweet and Lovely Sally. You are loved so much. God Rest Your Soul in Heaven.

Date: 20-06-2008