I took the girls to Disneyland last Friday all by myself!!

I surprised them and took them to Disneyland. I just love our Disneyland passes!! We spent the day at California Adventure. We saw the production, Aladdin, the production, Mickey Mouse Clubhouse, an outdoor production of all of the Disneyland Characters and we had meet and greets with Mickey Mouse and Cinderella.

Then I took them to see a really fun interactive show for the production "It's a Bug's Life". Then we ventured into "It's a Bugs Life" play zone and went on a couple of fun rides. It was a beautiful, sunny day and the girls had a blast. We got home at about 7:30pm.
