3 year portraits

Yesterday I took the girls to get the 3 year portraits. They wore their cute birthday overalls. They did me proud and posed for the camera like perfect little angels. Every picture came out perfect!!

Then we changed outfits and did a group picture with Mindy, Savannah and the triplets. That is when the meltdown began....Maryssa and Miranda were losing it. We got one good picture of all of them.

Then Mindy got some single portraits of herself. My goodness she looked beautiful. Th's was her fist time ever getting professional portraits done. She was so excited.

I ordered about 20 portraits of all of them. Cute, cute cute!!!
