Another birthday Party?

Today the triplets had their girlie party at Sea Scape in Anaheim. It is a cool place with bouncy houses and guns that shoot Nerf balls. The kids had a blast and then we had lunch in the party room. They played a video of pictures that they took of the triplets during their play time and they showed it during the birthday luncheon. Then they got their fun birthday cupcakes and then everyone got balloons and a goody bag.

Happy Birthday to my beautiful trio - Amanda, Miranda & Maryssa!!
