Bowling and pizza

Yesterday I took the girls bowling at . It was Savannah's 3rd time bowling and the triplets first time bowling. Thank goodness I had Mindy with me!! They didn't have bowling shoes small enough for the triplets and Savannah so they wore their own shoes. I got bowling shoes for Mindy and me. I had bowling coupons for free bowling so it was free for us to bowl. Yippee!!

I organized a bowling party for our La Habra Mom's Club at La Habra Bowl 300. It was a really good turn out.

The girls and I got to have our own private lane since there was six of us. We had reserved 5 lanes for the La Habra Mom's Club and we used up all 5 lanes!!

The triplets used a special "ramp" to bowl. They perched the ball on this special ramp that looked sort of like a slide and the ball would slide down the ramp and go down the lane toward the pins. This is what fist time kiddie bowlers use. Savannah crouched down and pushed her ball down the lane to get to the pins. I have to say Savannah one us all!! I think she might have a knack for bowling.

We had pizza afterwards at the bowling alley and all of the moms and kids had a great time. The triplets really enjoyed their first time bowling.
