Chuck E. Cheese in La Mirada

On Wednesday, Sept. 17th, I took all 4 girls to Chuck E. Cheese in La Miranda for their first time. I signed up for Chuck E. Cheese coupons and they e-mailed me a couple of great coupons which I used that night. My friend, Victoria, brought her 3 year old daughter, Sophia and her 1-1/2 year old daughter, Juliana with her. We all had a blast. What a great place for kids.

The triplets loved to ride on the cars. Savannah enjoyed those too, but she really enjoyed some of the games there. There was a cute Duckie Game and a cute Bumble Bee where she got to earn tickets for making good points on the games.

Cliff joined us and played with the girls and then we had dinner together. It was so neat seeing how much fun my girls were having with their daddy!! We order pizza and drinks. Their pizza was very good.

I am thinking we might have Savannah's 5th birthday party here.
