

Categories: Mom's Corner

Daddy left for Japan and a fun birthday party

We drove daddy to the LAX airport for his one week trip to Japan. We will pick him up next weekend.

This afternoon we went to a friend, Lana's, 4 year birthday party. They had a bouncy house and they have a couple of horses so all of the kids got a fun pony ride. Then the kids got to decorate their bags and then Lana's mommy, Karen, put fun treats and candy in the bags as party favors.

Everyone had pizza and yummy stuff for an early dinner and then the kids decorated cupcakes.

Then the kids played dress up and played with cute little kittens. It was a fun party.

Date: 22-08-2010