Halloween Pumpkin Patch and Carnival

Today we went to the Halloween Pumpkin Patch and Carnival at the Puente Hills Mall. I negotiated a great discount rate with the owner for our La Habra Moms Club...$5 per kid for 5 rides and a free pumpkin. Normally the prices are $3 per ride per kid and $2 for a pumpkin. I basically saved $20 for each kid...a good deal for certain. So all of the La Habra Moms were thrilled to go to this event.

All of my girls had way too much fun. They went on a ferris wheel for toddlers, a couple of bouncy houses, the swings ride where 2 girls got to sit together for each swing, and feed and pet all sorts of animals at the petting zoo-baby pigs, a baby calf, goats, sheep, chickens, etc. Then the girls picked out their pumpkins and we took lots of fun pictures with the cute Halloween backdrops around the pumpkin patch. The weather was a perfect 78 degrees and we all had so much fun. We will decorate the pumpkins next week at the park with all of our friends.
