I accept your nomination as President

Tonight I attended our La Habra Moms Club annual end of year banquet at El Cholo restaurant. We played fun games and I won a gift certificate to Pink Berry!! We had a delicious meal, I got soft grilled chicken tacos.

We presented our current president, Liz, with a nice gift thanking her for being our president this year. She did an amazing job. We gave her personalized engraved chopsticks. 4 bottles of wine in a basket full of flowers, and a $110 gift certificate to her favorite sushi restaurant, Higo Sushi, which is located here in La Habra.

Then Liz presented me with the prettiest flower crown and announced that I had accepted the nomination as President of the La Habra Moms Club. I felt very proud and honored to serve as president to this wonderful club full of the most wonderful friends and sister moms. I look forward to an amazing year as President!!
