IRL Friend

A friend of mine, Isa, who I have been friends with online was traveling down from San Francisco and staying at the Disneyland Hotel, The Grand Californian. We planned on meeting today for the first time in person!

Isa and I were pregnant together with our multiples. She has twin girls, Tamsin and Audrey and they just turned 4 and are a few months older than the triplets. I also met her husband.

They had already spent the day doing rides at Disneyland so they wanted to have a nice dinner at Downtown Disney. So, we met up with them at Downtown Disney. We put in a reservation at The Rainforest Cafe, but it was 1 and 3/4 hour wait! We went to their hotel and Isa changed her girls clothes. We talked and walked through Downtown Disney for a while. It was a bit chilly and her girls were getting very tired. It was about 6:30pm. She decided that they would just go up to their room and we would go ahead and go to Rainforest Cafe.

So, my friend Britney, and my 4 girls had dinner at Rainforest Cafe. The girls thought it was amazing. They loved the animated animals, butterflies and the rainforest storm that encountered us every 1/2 hour. After dinner they all wanted a toy and I took them down to the Rainforest Gift shop which is amazing!! They all picked out Crocodiles. I tell you, it is really like I have 4 boys than girls!! LOL!
