It's a Carnival!!

Today was Savannah's birthday party. The theme was My Littlest Pet shop gone Wild in a Carnival!!

Her closest friends from Kindergarten. a lot of her friends from the moms club, some friends from her old preschool, and her long time neighbor friend were there along with all of the mommies.

All of the kids got to paint bobble head ceramics, make personalized name bracelets or necklaces, paint and decorate their nails. The big hit was a bouncy house and a huge popcorn machine and snow cone machine!!

We had loads of pizza and snacks to eat. I have to say I made the most beautiful "My Littlest Pet Shop" birthday cake and matching cupcakes.

Balloons were everywhere. I would say the moms had just as much fun as the kids did!! The weather was beautiful and it was truly a very special day.

Savannah got many wonderful presents. She loved all of them!!
