Jen's Bridal shower

I bought a couple of pretty crystal serving dishes for Jen's bridal shower present. I also got her a pretty and sophisticated long negligee too.

I made some hummus and cut up some pita and put that on the crystal serving dishes. I also made a nice package of the ingredients along with a recipe so that she can make her own hummus.

It was a fun bridal shower and I stayed for ours! Her sister Lauren is so funny and keeps me in stitches!
