Categories: Mom's Corner

Maryssa had her first day of speech class as a 4 year old

Shelly Marker said she did great!! She is following directions and instructions which is a sign that her receptive language is really improving. Along with her maturing behavior as well, I believe.

Corrie's son, Jeremy, is in the same speech class as Maryssa. It gives Corrie and I chance to talk while they are in speech.

Date: 10-09-2010