Categories: Mom's Corner

Savannah, "May The Dark Side be with you"

Yesterday Cliff and I took the girls to Disneyland. It was a HOT 100 degrees. We arrived at noon so it was pretty toasty. The first ride we went on was The Jungle Cruise so we could all cool off. We moved onto Pirates of the Caribbean which was very refreshing!!

After lunch we saw a fabulous new parade called "Celebrate". Then Cliff wanted to take Savannah to see Star Tours. Savannah had a blast. She is now totally into Star Wars.

We lucked out and a live theatrical outdoor show called "Return of the Jedi" was underway so we saw that. That further deepened Savannah's intrigue to see the movie Star Wars. I foresee "The Dark Side" will be happening here soon. LOL!!

Date: 20-04-2009