Mrs. Prez

Today was my first meeting presiding as the club President of the La Habra Moms Club.

I had my friend, Amber Carpenter, who is a photographer at JCPenney's and also a private professional photographer, but a guest speaker at our meeting today. She brought her proof books of amazing photo sessions that she has done. What amazing samples of her work!

Then she took professional pictures with her background and lighting of all of our kiddos. She will be putting them on CD's for all of us!

It was a really great meeting and I served a fancy breakfast for everyone. I had bought a maple leaf shaped cookie cutter in Vermont and made Maple cookies with the maple leaf cookie cutter. Then I spread maple spread on top of the cookies. I also made homemade maple crunch with life cereal and it was so yummy! I bought a neat coffee pot container, similar to the one you see at the grocery store that you push down and coffee comes out. I served coffee and Chai Tea. I also had an agenda that I passed out to everyone. Feli was our babysitter. There was a ton of kids that day...poor Feli!
