Pinwheels and hearts

Savannah's school was selling cute Pinwheel Valentine's that were available for purchase all of this week. I ordered 5 of them, one for Savannah, 4 for her best friends in Kindy and one for her teacher. The Pinwheel Valentine's would be delivered to Savannah, her friends and her teacher today.

Savannah had a Valentine's Exchange in her classroom today. She brought Littlest Pet Shop Valentines, goody bags filled with candy and a huge heart shaped crazy straw. She brought Sally Field chocolate chip cookie tin for her teacher along with a heart shaped wind chime.

She recieved lots of fun Valentines stuff. She received a Valentine's Pinwheel from a boy named Austin in her class!! Oh boy!!
