

Categories: Mom's Corner

Savannah is a fish head

Today was Crazy Hat Day at Savannah's School. Savannah has this awesome hat that is the shape of a Nemo Fish that we got her from Sea World on her 3rd birthday. Today was the perfect day to show it off!! I had gotten Savannah a really cute orange outfit for school that she hadn't worn yet and it went perfect with her fish hat.

When we rolled up at school, Savannah jumped out of the car and quickly threw her hat off, for fear of embarrassment that she was the only kid in her class wearing a crazy hat. Then she saw some other kids wearing their crazy hats then she relaxed and I helped her put her fish hat on. She looked so stinken' cute lined up for class!!

She was a hit in her class today and all of the kids thought she looked so cool in her fish hat. Savannah was in her true element...she loves her fish.

Date: 21-10-2009