Spent Friday cooling off by the lake!!

Friday, Reyna and all of us drove over to Casitas Lake which is in Ojai. What a beautiful place!! We ate lunch and enjoyed the views of the lake. There was an awesome playground and the girls spent a couple of hours playing there.

I put down a couple of big blankets and Reyna, me and Mindy laid out and watched the girls play around. There was a friendly game of football going on so we rooted them on!!

It was so beautiful. We wanted to rent a boat, but I have no boat driving experience. We will have to come back with Cliff and rent a boat for us!!

We got back and everyone played in the jacuzzi while Reyna made the best barbecue dinner for us!! It was a wonderful day.

The weater was about 75 degrees - 20 degrees cooler than where we live. It was so nice!!
