Categories: Mom's Corner

Swimming lessons at the YMCA

Savannah has been taking swimming lessons at the YMCA in Whittier for 2 weeks now. Her friend, Sophia, also is in the class with her. I swear it looks like these two girls are twins!! It is so cute. My friend and I have to look really carefully to make sure we aren't confused with each other's kids.

Savvy seems to be enjoying her class. She goes 2 times a week, Tuesday and Thursday mornings. The 1st two sessions she was a little nervous and whined and was clingy to me. Now she seems fine.

A few of the Thursdays after swimming lessons I am taking her to Knott's Berry Farm Soak City in Buena Park. She loves the Kiddie area. It is so cool. We also like to go on the Lazy River and relax. What a really fun place!!

Date: 11-08-2008