We had a great 2 week vacation in Vermont

We flew out from John Wayne Orange County airport and transferred planes through Atlanta and arrived in Albany at 9:30pm on Monday June 30th. Last year we flew non-stop flights from LAX to either JFK or Boston because the triplets were too small and couldn't walk on the plane. This time was so much easier for Cliff and I.

When we arrived in our home in Granville, we had to undo all of our baby proofing we had done back in November 8 months ago. We also took down the cribs and put mattresses on the floor for the triplets to sleep on. It was so nice to have the girls sit in booster chairs and eat with us around the kitchen table. The high chairs are no long taking up all of the kitchen space anymore!! The house is beginning to look more like a house rather than a daycare center at our vacation home.

On July 3rd my sister Rosanne and her boyfriend Zane came to stay with us for a few days. We had so much fun attending the July 4th Parade in Poultney. It was a blast to see the triplets running out for candy thrown by the people in the fire trucks!! We had a fun bbq at our house afterwards. We took Rosanne and Zane to our favorite restaurant where we had our Wedding Reception. We all enjoyed a wonderful dinner then we went on a nice drive to Lake Bomozene to see the starts.

We had a birthday party on Sunday July13th to celebrate Cliff turning 50 and the triplets turning 2. Some dear friends of mine, Tracey who lives in Maryland, Dawn, who lives in Long Island, and Joyce who lives in New Jersey came up to spend time with us for a couple of days and they were also at the birthday party. The next day we went to the most adorable amusement park just for little kids. This place is appropriately named the Magic Forest and it is in Lake George. It was just precious to see the triplets ride with their big sister Savannah on the rides. I remember last year we took them and they were too little. The couldn't even crawl last summer and here they were climbing into the rides!! Just amazing to me. Savannah loved being with her sisters.

I took Savannah strawberry picking with my dear friend Wendy. We also took the girls to their first circus with Wendy. What an amazing and memorable trip it was. In the past year and a half, this by far has been the best trip and vacation amongst the 4 other trips we made from April 2007, July 2007 and November 2007.
