We hired a babysitter!!

After being on my own without any help or a babysitter from August 1st to the beginning of January that is FIVE months - we now have a babysitter. Her name is Lauren Grant and she attends Biola University. I put a job posting on the Biola Website and I have had a few interviews. She has good experience and is nice. She will be working Tues. and Thurs. mornings from 9:15-11:15am.
