We saw Terry Fador the Ventriliquist!!

My babysitter and now dear family friend, Christine, and her friend, Nicole went with us to a carnival yesterday. We went to the 23rd annual Summerfest in Brea. It is a gigantic carnival. They host top notch free entertainment. Terry Fador performed at the carnival last night. Hhe won Grand Prize Winner as the most talented for America's Got Talent on NBC. He is a ventriloquist, singer, comedian and celebrity impressionist. A true genius and an overnight sensation who now has his own Las Vegas show at the Mirage. This man is a brilliant entertainer and he brought the house down last night.

The girls got hungry for dinner, it was 7:30pm,so I grabbed some hotdogs and we had dinner while watching the show. It was so much fun!! I can't believe it was free!!

By the end of the show, the girls were ready to venture over to the vibrant twinkling lights where all of the fun games and rides were. There were so many fun little toddler rides for the girls to ride on. Each ride was $12 for all of the girls to go on. I let them go on 2 rides. I received a discount from the administration of the carnival. They saw my 4 girls and just knew it was going to cost me a fortune and donated $36 worth of tickets so the girls could go on 3 rides. Then a man overheard me telling the girls we ran out of tickets and he gave me 24 tickets so the girls could go on more rides!! It was just amazing!! God was shining down on us and showering us with so many blessings!!

We stayed till the carnival closed which was till about 10pm. The people that run the rides let our girls go on the rides for free. Again, I was amazed by such generosity.

The man who gave us the free tickets is a DJ for a local radio station. I met his wife and we hit it off. We agreed to exchange email addresses and plan a Disneyland play date. I emailed them today to see when they would like to go and to thank them for the tickets.

Last night just felt my heart with the Holy Spirit. I felt God's Love all around me. Even in the tough times we are having right now, God gives me special gifts like what I received from such generous people yesterday!!
