

Categories: Mom's Corner

We took the girls to TWO Easter Egg hunts today

We took the girls to the La Habra Heights Eggstravaganza this morning at 10am. They had a blast riding on the pony rides, marveled at the animals in the petting zoo, snuggled and petted the sweet little fluffy bunnies and met the Easter Bunny and got pictures with him. We had do much fun, We ran into lots of our friends. We brought our dog Teddy with us and he had a lot of fun too!!

At 12pm we went to Carbon Canyon Park where we had a nice picnic lunch and fed ducks at the lake. Then we had a fun Easter Egg hunt. Teddie came with us enjoyed himself at the park.

The weather today was gorgeous, about 75 degrees and sunny skies. A truly wonderful day for all of us!!

Date: 04-04-2009