We were Rockin' at Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory

I arranged with the owner of Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory in La Habra for fun event with my La Habra Moms Club. First, we got a tour of the premises.

Then our kids got to dip marshmallows in chocolate - the marshmallows cooled on a tray while we all watched how they make homemade Rocky Road Fudge. Can I just say YUM!!! ????

We had a blast and the kids devoured their chocolate covered marshmallows. We all bought caramel apples (that is what they are known for) and they offered a special buy 1lb of the homemade fudge and get a 1/2lb free so I HAD to indulge in that special!!

What better day than enjoying chocolate!!
