Categories: Mom's Corner

Who knew you could see 3D for $3 bucks?

Today we met up with Vanessa, her mom Betty, and her daughters Stacey and Tiffany at the La Mirada Starplex Theatres. It is a discount theatre and on Tuesdays the movies are $1. We were going to see Shrek. Well the Shrek was sold out. They had Shrek 3D for $3 a person including the really good black 3D glasses. So we did that.

This was our first 3D movie. It was fantastic. The Shrek movie showcased Shrek's triplets and that just warmed my heart since I have triplets...totally cute.

I brought some munchies for the kiddos and we have a great afternoon for $15 bucks for all of us! What a great deal and a really fun time!

Date: 03-08-2010