Will that be one or two lumps?

Today I took all of the girls to a Mother & Daughter Tea that I organized with both of my moms clubs. The girls wore beautiful and adorable dresses with Pet shop material, made by Grandma. We had 26 people there. I made cute Pet shop packages for the kids. I made hair bows that sported Pet shop characters and were very time consuming to make. But well worth it..the girls loved them!!

It was the first Tea for the triplets and for the most part they behaved. We had some challenging moments for THREE 3 year old triplets!! They munched on their lunch of chicken nuggets, fishie crackers, tea sandwiches and a blueberry scone. They had lemonade as their tea in little porcelain tea cups.

We had some a fun game of pulling numbers....everyone one a prize. I had made beautiful decorated sugar cookies in the shape of teapots and teacups. I had gotten the cookie cutters at East Poultney General Store last summer with the intention of using them for the Mother & Daughter Tea. I also gave out beautiful gift baskets to each mom with baked goods and chocolates inside. Then I gave each girl a rice crispy treat.

Everyone had a wonderful time. I can't believe this was the 3rd annual tea!! We look forward to doing it again next year...
